CHARLOTTE (CHARPEX) STAMP SHOW JULY 30 – 31

Charlotte, NC: The Charlotte Philatelic Society and the Fortnightly Stamp Club will jointly present their annual stamp and postcard show July 30 – 31 at the Worrell Building, on the campus of Central Piedmont Community College 1201 Elizabeth Avenue, Charlotte, NC 28235.

The show is open to the public from 10 a.m. to 6 PM Saturday and from 10 a.m. to 4 PM Sunday. Parking and admission are free..

The event will feature 20 stamp dealers, cover dealers and postcard dealers who will buy and sell stamps. There will be 50 – 60 frames of world class exhibits, educational seminars, a 300 lot silent auction and a show cancel and cachet will also be available.

A youth area will offer hands-on activities and learning opportunities, great for home school students. Boy and Girl Scout merit badge and advancement workshops will also be available..

The Charlotte Post Office will have a booth on Saturday and Sunday selling recent United States stamps.

Exhibits are still being accepted.

The North Carolina Postal History Society will hold its annual board and general meetings. The British North American Philatelic Society, the Carolina Chapter of the German Philatelic Society and the Ebony Society of Philatelic Events and Reflections (ESPER) will each conduct regional meetings.
