The President's Dispatch

At the September regular club meeting we had a briefing by Richard Jackson, our buying team leader, detailing the U.S. and foreign acquisitions for the club by the buying team. Richard presented a recommended pricing plan and an approach for this material to be brought to the membership for their purchase. This presentation was followed by a discussion and a vote by which the membership approved Richard's recommended plan.

Following the briefing and discussion the meeting concluded with a special auction. This was one of our better auctions. Several members (Paul and Grant) had brought substantial material to auction along with the other usual auction lots which covered about five tables. Most of this went home with new and happy owners.

Our next club meeting is at the Northeast State Community College Student Services Building on Thursday (7 p.m.) on October 16 - don't forget to put your parking pass on your dashboard. We will continue with special auctions so bring your items to the October club meeting. Please remember to fill out the special auction sheets for your lot (15 max.) in advance and mark the lots accordingly.

October is a 5th Thursday month so we will also have a club bourse at the Northeast State Community College Student Services Building on that Thursday (Oct. 30) at 7 p.m. Please plan to attend and bring material to sell/swap and bring your want lists to fill those spaces from these materials.

As I mentioned during the September meeting, Scott Publishing Co. is now offering its 2015 stamp catalogs in digital format. According to an article by William Sharpe in Linn's Stamp News, after you purchase an e-book format catalog you can use it on your home computers (Mac & Windows) and your iPod, iPad, iPhone and Android devices using apps available at the respective apps store. Note, however, that you are not downloading the catalogs to your devices. The catalogs remain on a web server which means you have to have an Internet connection to view them. Printing is disabled for catalog pages but you can use screen capture to print something you are viewing. Apparently the search capability of the new apps will be a boon to topical collectors and those searching to identify the Scott number for a stamp based on what is portrayed on it. The e-book catalogs are priced at $74.99 each at www.scottonline.com, which is cheaper than the printed versions that are priced at $89.99 each at www.amosadvantage.com. Sample pages from 2015 U.S. Volume 1 of the Scott Publishing catalog and information on how to purchase and view Scott e-book catalogs are available for free at www.scottonline.com. I think the club would be interested in hearing a report from any member who has bought and used one of these e-book catalogs. If they are user friendly, they would certainly beat lugging around the paper version! The free download is very readable but I don't believe it is fully functional.

I am looking forward to seeing you all at the October meetings where we can talk about and have a lot of fun with stamps. See you there!

USA Stamp of the Month continued

- Scott #571 50¢ Arlington Amphitheater
- Scott #572 $1 Lincoln Memorial
- Scott #573 $2 U.S. Capitol building
- Scott #574 $5 Statue "America"

You probably noticed the only stamp featuring a person that does not include a name in the inscription is Scott #565. Chief Hollow Horn Bear is the American Indian on Scott #565. Hollow Horn Bear was born in what is now Nebraska. He led the Lakota tribe during the Indian Wars on the Great Plains. He and leaders of Sioux tribes harassed U.S. Army forts along the Bozeman Trail from 1866 to 1868. He began to favor peace with the Whites in the 1870s and became involved in treaty negotiations. He also became vocal in the politics of U. S. Indian Agents managing Indian Reservations. He led Indian delegations to the inaugurations of Pres. Teddy Roosevelt (1905) and Pres. Woodrow Wilson (1913). He developed pneumonia during the visit to Washington D.C. for Pres. Wilson's inauguration and died soon afterwards. He was 63 years old.

Update on upright Jenny stamps by your newsletter editor

The Linn's Stamp News Newsletter on Sept. 29 reminded collectors that it has been one year since the new Jenny stamps went on sale and we learned that 100 sheetlets were upright Jenny stamps. So far members of the public have only revealed purchasing nineteen of the upright Jenny sheetlets. The Jenny sheetlets can still be purchased from USPS.

Unless otherwise indicated by announcement in the newsletter, Holston Stamp Club conducts its regular meeting on the 3rd Thursday each month at 7 p.m.

Hope to C. U. there
