The Story of Bread

With Alan Barasch

Tuesday, February 4, 7:00 p.m. Eastern

It's always fun when inveterate topicalist Alan Barasch presents one of his many topics. Alan is a member of the Gastronomy Study Unit, and has held leadership positions in many philatelic organizations. His humor and creativity make all of his programs entertaining.

The Comet and the Tapestry

With Tom Broadhead

Tuesday, March 11, 7:00 p.m. Eastern

Halley's Comet visited Earth in 1066 and its appearance is depicted on the Bayeux Tapestry. In 1986 when it last flew by, several countries issued stamps and a couple of pictorial cancellations that showed that scene from the tapestry. In addition to the Norman conquest of Britain, there are other interesting Halley's comet stories, notably the birth and death of Mark Twain. It's due back in 2062 - stay tuned! Tom has been our most frequent presenter because his programs are always informative and enlightening.

Expand Your Collection with Poster Stamps

With Michele Bresso

Tuesday, March 25, 7:00 p.m. Eastern

If you're seeking a new way to expand your topical collection, poster stamps may be just the thing. Poster stamps, whose different issues number in the tens of thousands, offer a plethora of affordable topical booty waiting to be discovered. Hear the origin and history of the "cinderella," and see ways that poster stamps shine in topical and thematic collections. Lifetime philatelist Dr. Michele Bresso is a retired college professor who discovered poster stamps' value in her topical collections. She will share how to use them, find them and make them your own.
