Southeastern Stamp Expo Announces 2020 Jury and Call for Exhibits

The Organizing Committee of the Southeastern Stamp Expo is pleased to announce the availability of its Exhibiting Prospectus for the 2020 show and the approval of its judging panel.

The Southeastern Stamp Expo will take place on January 31st to February 2nd, 2020 at the Hilton Atlanta Northeast in Peachtree Corners, Georgia. Our Exhibit Prospectus and Entry Form are now available via the show's website, and the SESE is now accepting exhibiting applications.

In 2020, we are pleased to welcome the France and Colonies Philatelic Society for their Annual General Meeting. Fifty frames have been reserved for FCPS exhibitors until October 31st.

Please visit our website at www.sefsc.org/exhibits to view and download our prospectus and entry form. Note that the SESE has implemented a fully electronic submission process which can be used for your convenience. Traditional submission via United States Postal Service is also available.

In concert with our call for exhibits, we are pleased to announce that the American Philatelic Society has approved our panel of judges for the 2020 show. For 2020, our jury shall consist of the following accredited philatelic judges:

Kathryn Johnson, Chair, Illinois
Ron Leshner, Maryland
Allison Cusick, Pennsylvania
Robert Meegan, New York
Wayne Menuz, California

The show is pleased to welcome back judges Johnson, Leshner and Cusick, who have all served the Southeastern Stamp Expo before.

We anticipate our exhibitors will be very well served by this very experienced jury.

All questions related to the exhibition can be directed to the show committee at sestampexpo@gmail.com.
